- At the top of escalator, make a right and walk past the coffee stand on your left.
- Walk through the elevator vestibule and continue towards the security desk on the left.
- When you arrive at the security desk, you have entered the SCTR.
- Proceed past the security desk to the elevators and take the elevators closest to the security desk (not the patient elevators at the far end).

Take the elevator to research floors 8 through 12, exit and go through the set of double doors. Turn right and walk to the far end of the building. Room 146 is at the south end of the building toward the river.
